A short Dash in the middle of a Word, or from the end of a Letter, either upwards or downwards, stands for (r).

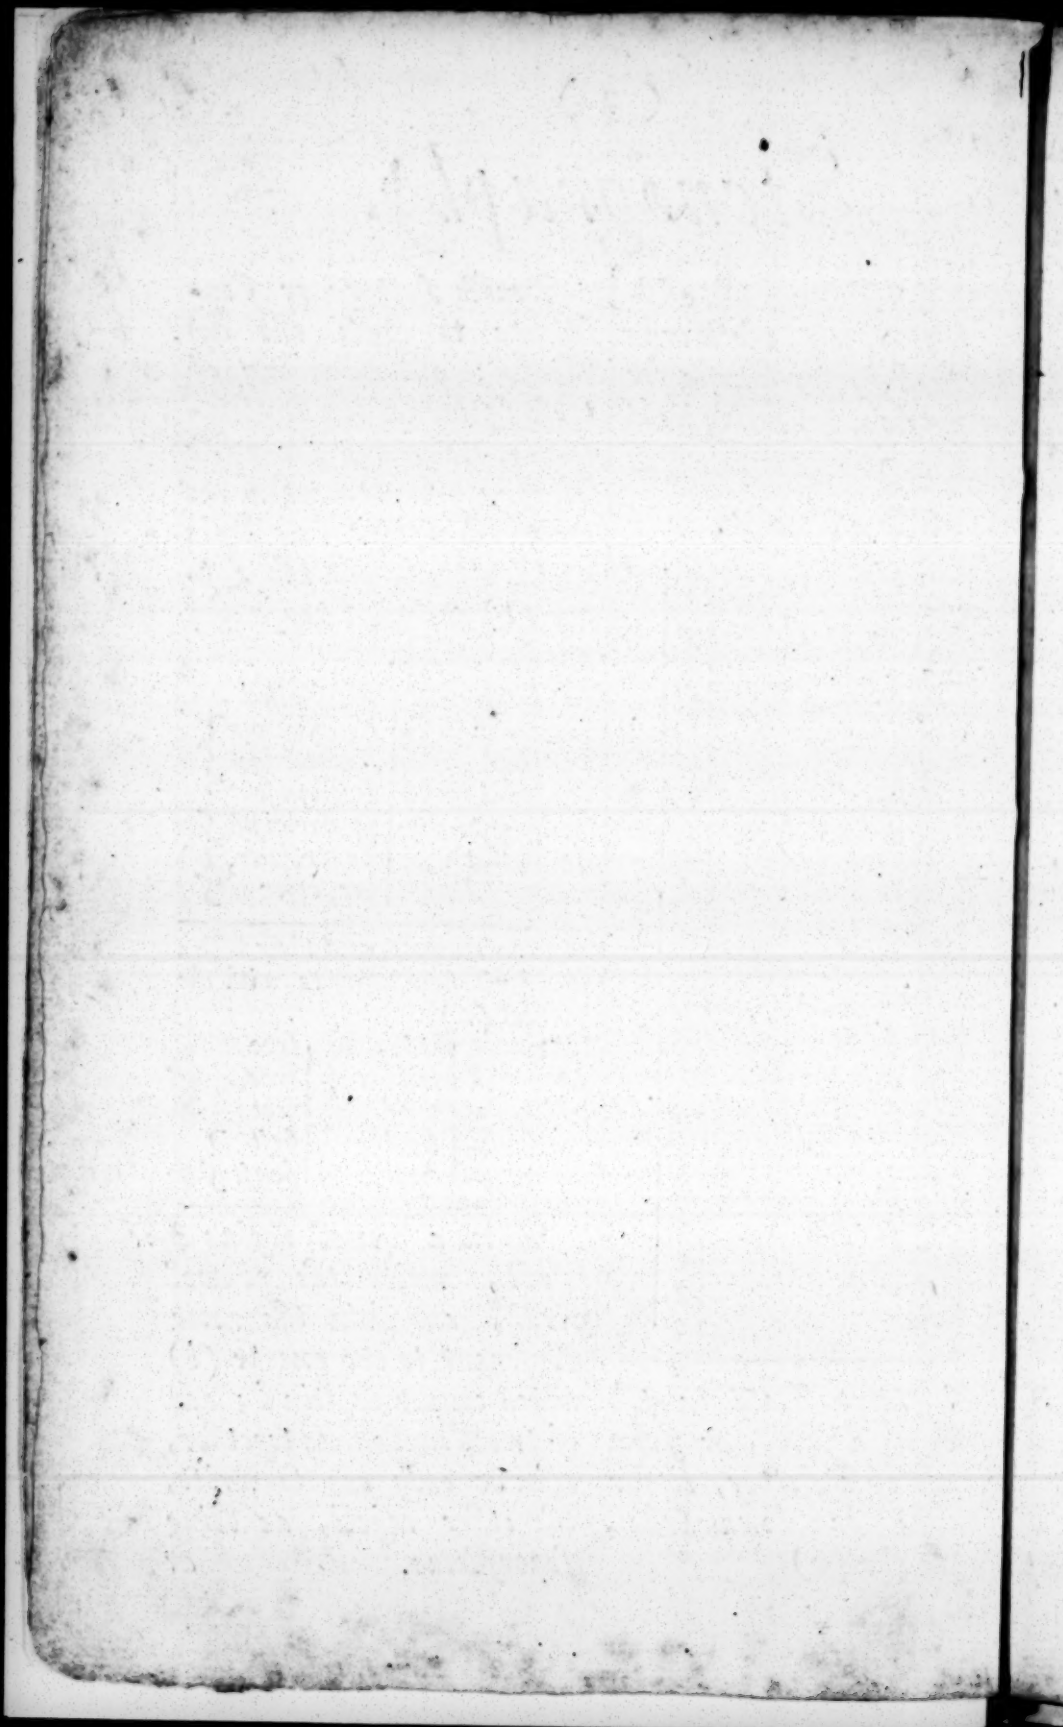

Double Letters or Consonants to begin and end Words; and when any of those Letters stand by themselves, they are for whole Words. Note, when you write the Letter (a) begin at the bottom, and the Letter (t) at top, because they are both alike.

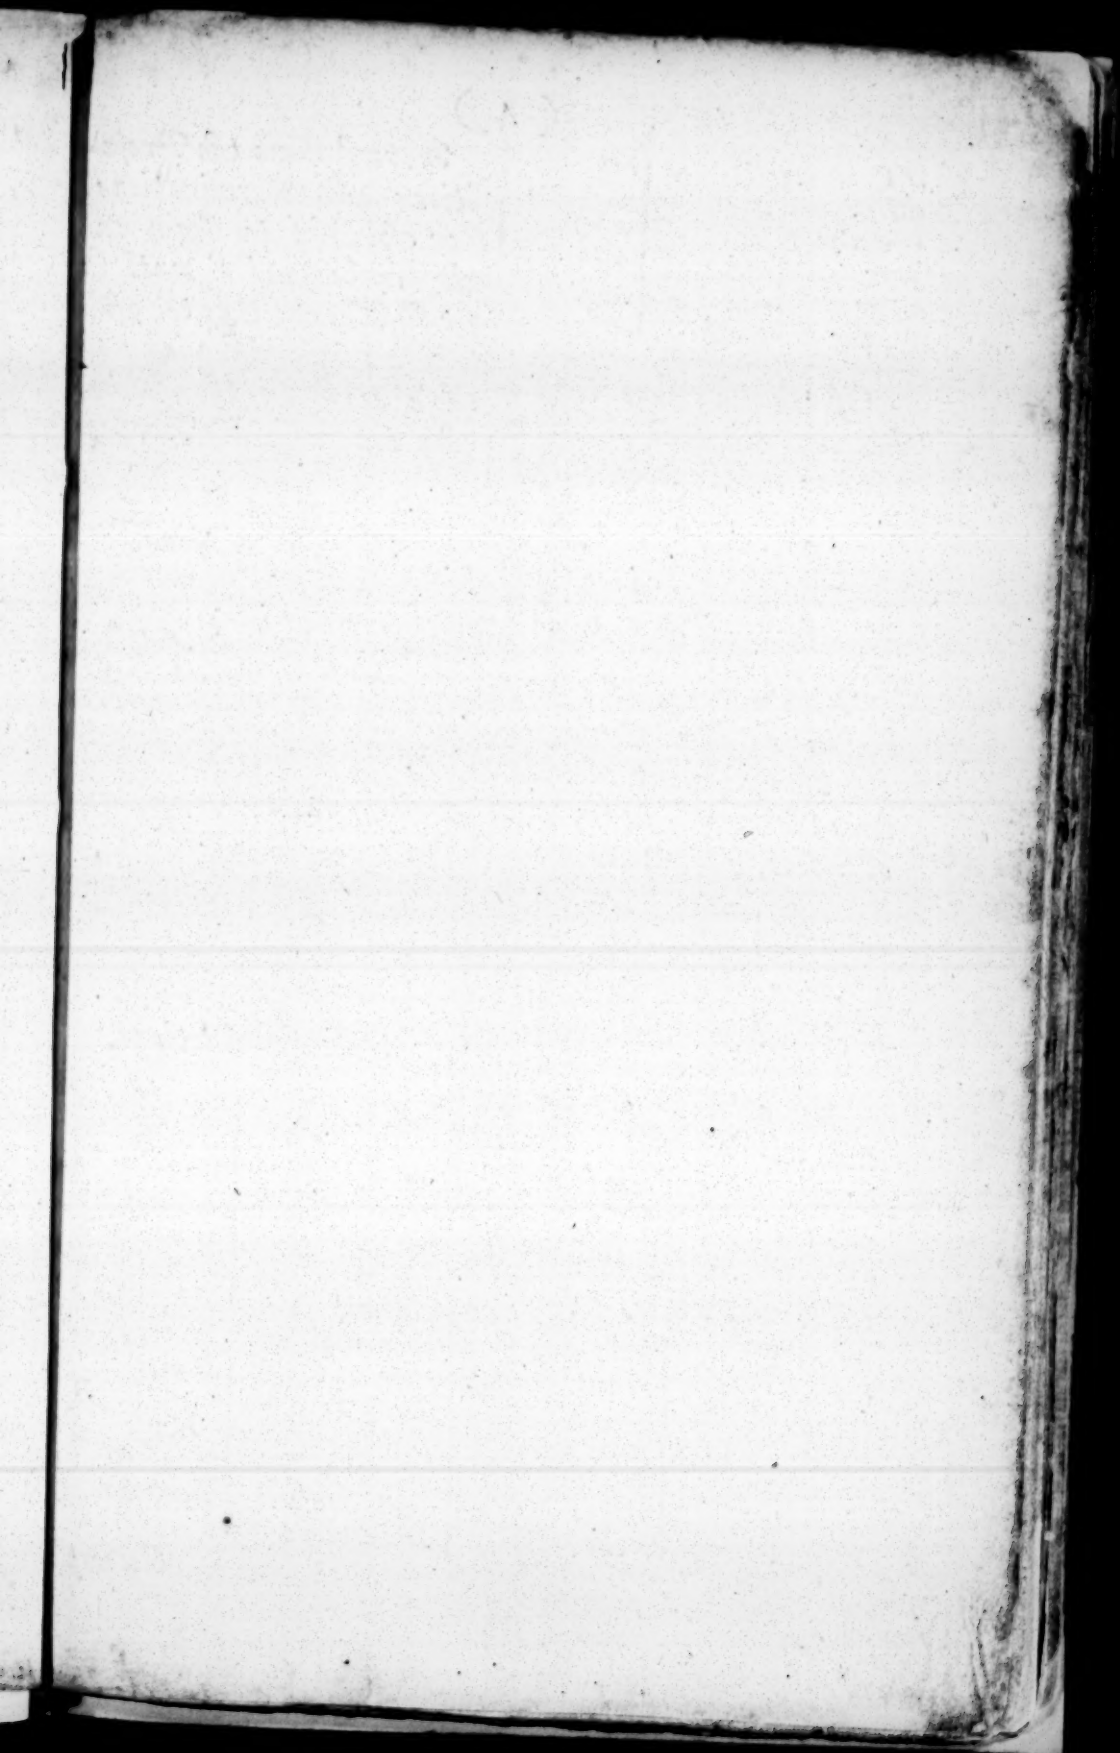

Br, bear	1	Bl, blessed	1
Dr, dear	2	Kn, Know-s	2
Fl, Flesh	7	Knowledg	7
Gt, Godly	4	Strong-est	4
Sp, Spirit	+	St, Strength	+

Of the Vowels, and their Vje; and first how to write with the Vowel (e)

Me	fed	tree	6
set	sell	free	7
tell	mell	feet	1
we	send	best	1
beam	end	beast	1

When a Vowel begins a Word, write the Vowel first, and join the next Consonant to it, except (i) which cannot be join'd; and if two Vowels come together, observe only one to write, the other reject, as being superfluous.

At	7	ill	1	eat	σ
all	0	it	7	ear	q
am, aim	—	ax	—	very	γ
tear	4	air	†	cath	κ
utter	2	also	—	each	α

Of the other four Vowels Places, and how to write with or make use of them.

a	a	a	a
i	i	i	i
o	o	o	o
u	u	u	u

Now observe, if a Word begins with a Consonant, set the Consonants that follow the Vowel, in the Vowel Place, as follows.

Rad	2	jade	7y	fict	h
bid	12	rage	†	lect	u
rod	h	gate	4	fun	£
bud	3	safe	†	down	2
but	1	fit	†	muse	†

If a Word begins and ends with a double Consonant or more, join them together, and then set the Consonants that follow the Vowel, in the Vowel Place.

Blam'd	U	Sight	1
Grand	U	Night	7
Blind	h	Bright	7
Sport	£	Strange	7
Stand	7	Fright	7
Drank	2	Whole	£
DrunK	2	Void	£

Here follows the Prepositions and Terminations, (or Marks to begin and end Words) which must be got by Heart, like the Alphabet; and when any of these stand by themselves, they are for whole Words.

The Prepositions.

Com, comp	Re	f

Example

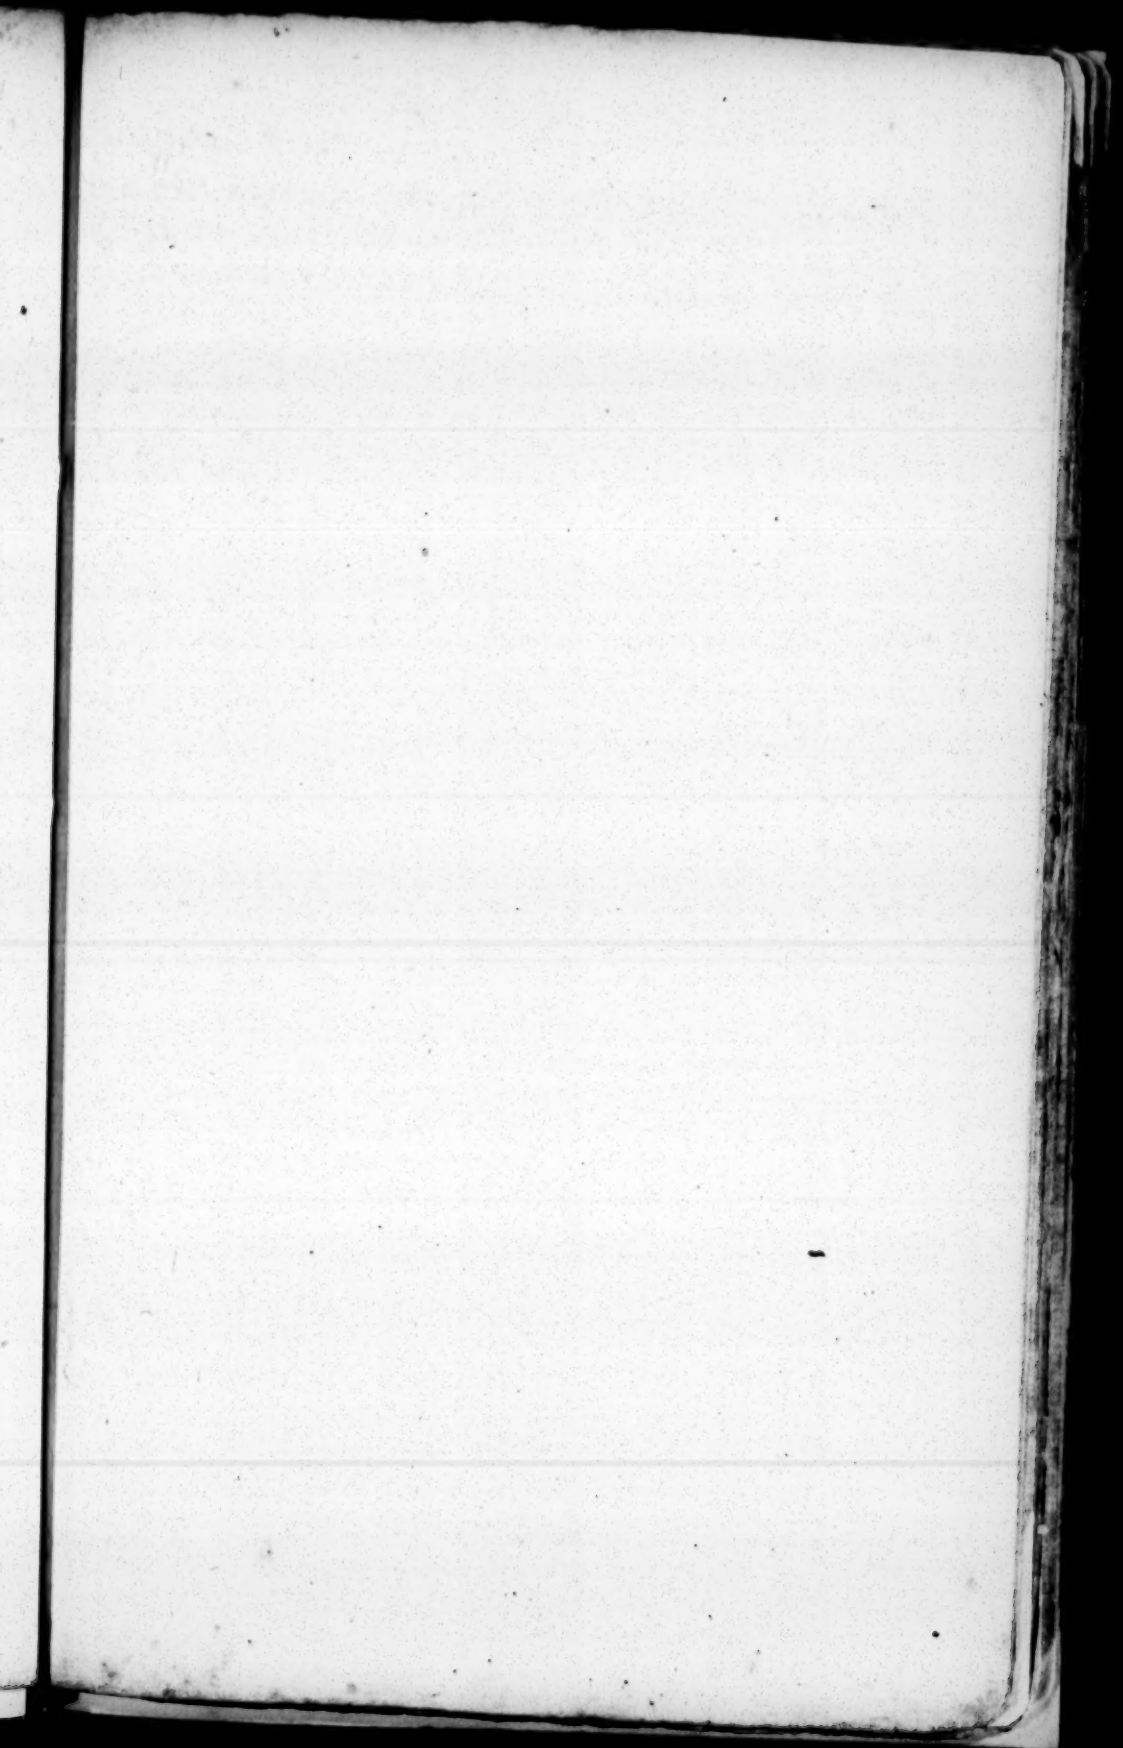

Examples of writing after the Alphabet.

Note, That in writing of Short-hand, true Speaking is not to be regarded, but the true Sound of the Word. Double and treble Consonants, as well as Vowels, are not observ'd; therefore all Superfluous Letters, that have but little or no Sound at all, are to be omitted. And note also, that altho' the (a) Vowel is to be plac'd at the top of any Letter or Character, the Vowel (i) next to the corner or side, the Vowel (o) at the lower corner, and (u) at the bottom; yet, for the more speed in writing, they are often plac'd or observ'd (especially the (a) Vowel) as if they were (e) Vowels. A Tittle set in any Word or Character, signifies (in).

Note, Any of the foregoing Sentences, &c. may with Ease be writ by the Rules in this Book: But if the Learner thinks it not convenient to omit the Articles (a) and (the) and likewise (of) when it comes between two Substantives he may write them; and to distinguish (a) from (the) put a Tittle at the bottom of (the) thus !

And when any such Sentences are to be writ as (and the Children of Israel) place the Mark for (Children) after (and) and for (Israel) thus and so likewise in many the like Cases.
